

Special Congregational Meetings Regarding Issues of Conscience or Witness

(approved 02-28-21)

The congregation may express itself publicly on any ethical, social, or justice issue through the following process. A proposed resolution, signed by at least 10 members, is submitted to the Social Action Committee for review and consideration by the Board. The Board will call a meeting of the congregation to consider it. A three-fourths (3/4) vote of the members present is required for approval.
